

Bill Rice Attends Exclusive Conference for Financial Advisors

Somerset PA—Bill Rice, Owner of Laurel Highlands Financial Services, in Somerset PA, was invited to gather with a group of prominent financial advisors at Commonwealth Financial Network®'s Founder's Club, held April 28 – May 2, 2019, in Miami Beach, Florida. The Founder's Club conference recognizes highly successful advisors, based on annual production* rankings among Commonwealth's nationwide network of 1,710 financial advisors.

A variety of business meetings and informative sessions spanned the four-day conference, where attendees gained compelling insights, best practices, and recommendations from industry leaders. Numerous networking sessions and opportunities for interacting with peers allowed like-minded advisors to connect and share ideas. Overall, the conference emphasized providing the highest level of service, value, and commitment to the participants' clients.

“It was a pleasure to welcome Bill Rice at Founder's Club and to honor him for the values and commitment he brings to,” said Wayne Bloom, CEO of Commonwealth. “His involvement in this conference demonstrates that Bill never stops raising the bar on the professional standards that he brings to the clients who depend on him for independent financial guidance and integrity.”
